*How then will they call on Him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in Him whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without a preacher? 15 How will they preach unless they are sent? Just as it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of good things! Romans 10:14-15 (NASB)
Those who sow in tears shall reap with joyful shouting.6 He who goes to and fro weeping, carrying his bag of seed, Shall indeed come again with a shout of joy, bringing his sheaves with him. Psalms 126:5-6(NASB)*

Music students in Usila

The Mexican Indian Training Center is located in the City of Córdoba Veracruz, in southeastern Mexico. On the mission campus we have our full time Bible School facilities, our Christian Music School, areas for Bible Conferences, Medical Missions, Youth Camp facilities, Children Ministries, Bible Classrooms and Staff and Faculty homes. Many things are shared and accomplished right here before our eyes at this location. God has blessed us over and over working here in our midst. His WORD is taught in many different modes and settings and we are greatly privileged by God's work among us. We know this is all by His grace as we deserve nothing, but GOD is good and shows us His abundant mercy. However, the mission campus is also a hub from which many GO FORTH continually. Teachers, students, year in practice student missionaries and weekend student missionaries are constantly serving outside the campus walls and facilities. God continues to advance His Kingdom by the saving knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

This past month, our Christian Music School staff and alumni traveled through the mountains to the Chinanteco village of Usila. There they joined with our alumni pastor Marco Deseano and had a weekend Music and Technology Congress for the brethren of that region. It was a scaled down replica of our bi-annual Music Congress here in Cordoba, but adapted to the needs of the people of Usila. Led by our Christian Music School Director brother Erick Vazquez, this team gave clinics on a variety of instruments, classes on choral technique and even on basic audio essentials. Marco Barroso taught conferences about Christ centered and scripturally based worship. They also had two open-air, town-wide concerts, singing, playing a variety of instruments and of course preaching the Gospel of Jesus. It was especially good to see the graduates from our Christian Music School in this remote area putting into practice the many things they learned during their three years of studies and training here at Cordoba. This was a great encouragement to the local church in Usila, to their youth, and to many brethren that came from other villages in the region to learn in this special weekend from the missionaries from Cordoba.

Traveling almost from the east coast to the west coast of Mexico, through the Isthmus of Mexico, our United Youth Choir went to the state of Chiapas, where there are many families still recovering from the earthquakes of last year and some from earlier this year. This team went loaded with food and clothing supplies and gifts for children. Led by MITC staff members Alfredo Arce and Ez and Marco

Barroso, they went to the town of Cintalapa where the families with the greatest needs were blessed with at least a week's provision of basic food supplies, called in Spanish "Despensa." There is a small community adjacent to the town of Cintalapa that was also severely damaged by the quakes, in which there is no church. God used the "Despensas" given to the families in this area to open a new center for Bible studies and Gospel presentations. This new area is called Emiliano Zapata, praise the Lord, a new work has started! The kids of the youth choir worked very hard during the day giving out the supplies and working in the Bible Clubs with the children. They sang at night, presenting Gospel centered concerts in the town square, something never seen before in this area of Chiapas. The message of hope impacted the town and its authorities, greatly encouraging the believers of the Christian Church in Cintalapa. We thank the Lord for sending workers to His harvest.

Our alumni, Marco Deseano, who is the pastor of the church in Usila, is also taking the Gospel further into the Chinanteco mountains. Leading the youth from his church, they walked several hours to the village of San Pedro Tlatepuzco, where one of the newest mission works associated with the MITC ministry is located. It is great to see the younger generation being challenged to go up into the mountains to take the Word! Their group, along with Usila Alumni and Mission Pastor Danny Paz, went for a weekend Bible conference. Working alongside Pastor Marco Deseano, they make a great ministry team sharing the Gospel in Usila and in the villages of the Chinanteco region. They are helping the churches in the neighboring villages of Alianza, Tejas, Santiago Tlatepuzco, Santa Flora, and this most recent one in San Pedro Tlatepuzco. These are also “beautiful feet” that take the Good News of the Lord.

It is about a two hour walk from Teponapa to Pena Verde up in the Cuicateco mountain region. Our Year in Practice student, Jose Manuel, makes the walk three times a week. His missionary duties are to preach one place, then go to the other village, have classes with the children, disciple the youth and then have a service with all the brethren. He is in great shape! Walking from Pena Verde to Teponapa is not so bad because it is downhill, but the return is quite an exhausting hike because it is all uphill, or rather up-mountain. Jose Manuel is glad to do this week after week, for he knows the Word he is sharing will have eternal benefits for the people he teaches and it brings glory to the Lord Jesus. Lord willing, Jose Manuel will graduate from the Full-Time Bible program this coming June.

These are some of those taking the precious seed, the Word of Christ, to many that need to hear. They are able to go by God’s provision through each one of you who are a part of MITC as you partner with us in prayer, financial support and visits. We trust the Word will continue to go forth and many more will come to know our Lord and Savior. Thank you for serving with us and may the Lord bless and continue to use each of us for His glory. Keep us in you your thoughts and prayers.

Yours in His grace,

Dan & Chuy Hall
